THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 9/10, 2016

Jesus asked "Do you love me?" Jesus, this God-made-flesh, is interested in one thing, the heart and face of the one before him. The gift of a person, even tarnished, so like unto glory it was the only image of God, that God allowed. The human "yes." The affirmation, uttered in all its hurt and frailty. Jesus said only, "Do you love me?" What manner of God is this that we worship? What wondrous love has become incarnated to live and die in Jesus Christ? What splendid manner of man was he? How could we not "glory" in such a God?

Food for thought.....A few rules from the Twelve Rules of Spiritual Wisdom. .... Silence is often misinterpreted, but never misquoted. ....Blessed are the flexible for they shall not be bent out of shape. .... Be more concerned with your character than your reputation, because your character is what you really are, while your reputation is merely what others think you are.
