13th SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

June 25/26, 2016

Jesus is saying that Christianity is a major challenge, not just a warm blanket. Jesus values God more than safe sleep, than courtesy to family and friends, than family funerals. None of these are evil or bad, they are good. But they receive their worth at the very core of themselves from love. Love, the primary reason for our lives and our deeds, the primary mission Jesus invites us to so keenly. Love of God above all, love of our neighbor as ourselves, no matter what.

Assisted Suicide & Euthanasia THINK ABOUT IT - Some people mistakenly believe that Catholics are required to do everything possible to stay alive as long as possible. But the Church does not require persons to accept interventions that they experience as overwhelming or too burdensome. Canadians have a right to refuse or withdraw consent to any type of care or treatment. To allow death to occur, recognizing the limits of medicine to cure or to improve function, is not euthanasia or assisted suicide. For more info: <http://www.chassk.ca/ethics/euthanasia.php>
