

SEEN AROUND THE PARISH: Merv has been kept busy keeping ahead of getting rid of the leaves. Wonderstruck sessions are in their fifth week. Father and Marge have been busy with Sacrament prep.

STEWARDSHIP: Celebrating & Sharing God's Gifts. Today's readings paint a somewhat frightening picture of the end of time. But the Gospel ends with the assurance to faithful stewards that those who persevere will be saved.

ANNUAL APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION – 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mal. 3: 19-20A / Ps. 98: 5-9 / 2 Thes. 3: 7-12 / Lk 21: 5-19

Jesus predicted that the Jerusalem Temple, beautiful as it was, would be destroyed. He then went on to speak of wider turmoil among the nations, throughout the natural world, and in the heavens.

But before the end, the Day of the Lord, which will bring judgment on evil and healing to the faithful, there will be a long period which will be marked by rejection, persecution, and even execution for faith in Christ. However, he urged perseverance to secure our eternal life.

St. Paul wrote to tell us in this waiting period, we should carry on our daily tasks and work, taking responsibility to support ourselves. That keeps disorder out of the Christian community, and leads us to a quiet yet active life of faith in which we share our time, talent, and treasure to serve Christ and his Church.

33rd SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Nov. 12/13, 2016

Christ counsels us not to be alarmed at our condition. Do not follow the false messiahs and easy predictors. Words and wisdom will be given. Through all the turmoil of our days, our generation, our species, it is not death, but a new saving birth which is assured. In some final sense, "not a hair of your head will be harmed." In patient endurance, life will be saved.

Jest kidding "Thanks for the harmonica you gave me for Christmas," Little Joshua said to his grandfather the first time he saw him after the holidays. "It's the best present I ever got." "That's great," said his grandfather. "Do you know how to play it?" "Oh, I don't play it," the little fellow said. "Mom gives me a dollar a day not to play it during the day and dad gives me five dollars a week not to play it at nights."
