

SEEN AROUND THE PARISH: The final evening of Reconciliation classes concluded on Thursday. The celebration of Reconciliation takes place today (Sunday) at 1 p.m. Our sympathy goes out to the Lichtenwald family in the death of Jeanette whose funeral was here on Thursday.

STEWARDSHIP: Celebrating & Sharing God's Gifts. Today we celebrate Christ the King and are reminded that all was created through Him and for Him. Does my stewardship of the blessings entrusted to me give evidence that Christ is Lord of my life?

ANNUAL APPEAL BULLETIN REFLECTION – Solemnity of Christ the King!

2Sm.5:1-3 | Ps. 122:1-5 | Col. 1:12-20 | Lk. 23:35-43

“Amen, I say to you; today you will be with me in Paradise.” Are those not the words we all aspire to hear? Jesus reminds us throughout Holy Scripture that we must keep our Christian life focus on two points: Jesus Himself, and that our lives lead to Eternity. It is these thrusts that should make us lead lives of gratitude and thanksgiving to God.

This Sunday is traditionally called Christ the King. Yes, we recognize Jesus’ Kingship over all the earth and all its peoples, but the Gospel points to the part of His dominion that cannot be matched by anyone else: He rules over death as well as over life. St. Catherine of Siena once said, “All the way to heaven is heaven, because Jesus said, ‘I am the way’.”

As we prepare for Advent, which begins next weekend, and as we end our liturgical year this week, we need to dedicate ourselves anew to being good stewards of all that the Lord, Christ our King, has blessed us with and to share those gifts as God’s children. We also join with the forgiven thief who was crucified next to Jesus and place our total trust in God. While we attempt to be disciples of the Lord, we need to share what we have - time, talents and treasure in every opportunity the Lord gives us, no matter how small our best effort. In sharing our gifts with the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, we silently utter “Thank you, God” and “Lord, remember me.”

CHRIST THE KING SUNDAY

Nov. 19/20, 2016

Jesus identified with the lowliest, most ordinary people in the land. This man had come from God and he took on every aspect of our human lives (except sin). Even shame & humiliation. Even death. Pilate asked him if he were a king. He was, but not in a way that Pilate could understand. Smallness was his power. His Godly smallness characterized him as Christ the King!

Jest kidding A mountaineer and his son went to the city for the first time. In one of the buildings, the man saw a set of doors open, an old women enter, and the doors closed. Soon the doors opened again, and a young women stepped out. The man turned to his son and said, "You stay here. I'm going for your mother to run her through that machine
