

SEEN AROUND THE PARISH: Our Stewardship Commitment sheets are coming in - if you haven't brought yours in yet do so in the next few days as they will be gone through this coming week. Thank You to all who have submitted theirs.

STEWARDSHIP: Celebrating & Sharing God's Gifts. When will I have given enough - of my income, of my time, of my talents? Today's Gospel suggests that only total stewardship will do: "When you have done all you have been commanded to do, say, "We are useless servants. We have done no more than our duty."

Prayer of Thanks - I thank You, God, that You have given me so many daily blessings. Help me to be content and not to take any of them for granted. Even as I wait on You for the things I am praying for, I choose to be grateful for the blessings I live in each and every day.

Everyone is invited Fri., Oct. 7th and Sat., Oct. 8th, for first Friday/first Saturday all-night vigil in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary. 27th SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Oct. 1/2, 2016

Sometimes we can be very naive about faith and its dynamics, thinking that faith in God is a ticket to earthly peace and joy. Faith doesn't put us on the same conveyor-belt where one dynamic fits all. Sometimes people with deep faith die, as Jesus did, in darkness and fear; and sometimes people with deep faith they die in calm and peace.

Jest kidding The patient awakened after the operation to find herself in a room with all the blinds drawn. "Why are the blinds closed?" she asked her doctor. "Well," the surgeon responded, "They're fighting a huge fire across the street, and we didn't want you to wake up and think the operation failed."
