

STEWARDSHIP: Celebrating & Sharing God's Gifts.

"The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." 1 Peter 2:7

Everyone is given unique gifts. Many people are able to recognize their talents and abilities, but there are many people who are unsure of their gifts. This may make them feel worthless. If you know someone who is struggling for a direction in life, give them a little encouragement. Help them discern how they might use their skills. No gift is too small or insignificant.

TF34: Catholics and Anglicans Thinking About Mary

This week on Thinking Faith, in keeping with the Marian theme of this Month of May Eric and Brett discuss our Church's Marian Dogmas. We'll look at what the Church has to say about Mary's role as Theotokos (God Bearer), her Immaculate Conception, perpetual virginity and Assumption into heaven all through the lens of a very exciting dialog document produced by the Anglican-Roman Catholic International Commission (ARCIC) seeking common ground on Mary between Anglican's and Catholics. AND if this piques your interest, you can even read ARCIC's "Mary: Grace and Hope in Christ" document for free right here:

http://www.vatican.va/roman_curia/pontifical_councils/chrstuni/angl-comm-docs/rc_pc_chrstuni_doc_20050516_mary-grace-hope-christ_en.html and really, what could be better than free things and Mary?

Has the way we've told our Canadian Story in the past been completely honest? The work of the recent Truth and Reconciliation Commission made it abundantly clear that there is great need for us to be engaged in a new level of listening and learning to walk together. Mark your calendars! Consider attending--The 11th Annual Archdiocesan Social Justice in Motion Conference. Holy Child, June 24, Listening, Learning and Walking Together. Cost $30

Just kidding ... Parachute recall notice: On Page 7 of instruction manual, please change the words "state zip code" to "pull rip cord".
