TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Sept. 22/23, 2018

We can be fair, we can be just, but we don't yet love the way Jesus asked us to, so that our love goes out to both those who love us and to those who hate us. We still struggle, mightily, mostly unsuccessfully, to wish our enemies well. It's the best we can do, it puts us at the right place at the level of desire, not a perfect place, but one better than its alternative

STEWARDSHIP: Celebrating & Sharing God's Gifts. . "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Mark 9:35

Jesus teaches us that we are called to serve one another. Sacrifice is not a word that many people like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.
