

STEWARDSHIP: Celebrating & Sharing "But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back." (Luke 6:35)

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Mercy and compassion will put us on the path to holiness.

The Archdiocese of Regina Youth Ministry office is working to establish a "small group ministry" specifically for young adults. Contact us if you are interested in being part of a small community (about 10-15) people who are in a similar place in life as you are and are seeking to grow in faith. Small groups will meet weekly or bi-weekly (depending on the decision of the group) and will gather in people's homes to build community, learn, pray and socialize. If you are interested in being part of such a group, please contact Michelle Braden at mbraden@archregina.sk.ca or by calling 306 352 1651 ext. 223

Your old palms can be brought this week or next week to be burnt.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Feb. 23/24, 2019

When we find ourselves stuck in traffic, metaphorically and otherwise, we need to admit our own complicity and resist the temptation to simply blame others. No one can walk through life without leaving a footprint. To pretend otherwise is dishonest and to try to not leave a footprint is futile. The starting point to make things better is for us to admit and confess our complicity.

We hope to see 14,000 people participate in writing the Minister of Health by the end of February 2019.

Please take a moment to review and sign the pre-scripted letter to the Minister of Health at the back of the church on Feb 17 and Feb 24. Thank you for living a faith that acts!

Just Kidding....When the family returned from Sunday morning service, father criticized the sermon, daughter thought the choir's singing was off-key, and mother found fault with the organist's playing. The subject had to be dropped when the small boy of the family said. "But it was a good show for a nickel, don't you think, Dad?"
