

STEWARDSHIP: 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed Him." (Matthew 4:22)

Just as Jesus called the first apostles, He calls each of us to follow Him, too. Not everyone is called to leave their business or family behind, but we are expected to put God first in everything. Everything from our time in daily prayer, our talent in participating in one of our parish ministries, and our treasure to support the financial needs of our parish mission.

A Valentine Sing Along St. Peter's Parish Hall 100 Argyle St., Sunday, Feb. 2 @ 2 pm. Wheelchair accessible. Refreshments served. Freewill offering. Call Patricia 306-924-0418 for more information.

40th Annual Nash Lecture: The Feminist Revolution in Religion Wed., Feb. 5, 7:30 pm at Campion College Auditorium. In this talk, Dr. Gina Messina will discuss the status of the Church and its influence on socio-political dialogue. Dr. Messina is an American scholar and Catholic theologian with a focus on the intersection of gender, religion, and politics.

3rd SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

January 25/26, 2020

It is good to recall the kinds of people Jesus chose for Apostles, they were all flawed yet graced. They would go on to heal and preach. And what always helped them overcome their differences was the sure knowledge that it was in Christ's name they were fishing, not their own.

Just Kidding.....A minister was making a pastoral call. Just before he left, he said he wished to read the Bible and have prayer. The father turned to one of his children and sanctimoniously said, "Go bring that book your father is always reading." Soon, to the minister's delight and the father's embarrassment, the son returned with the swimsuit issue of Sports Illustrated.
