The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, August 15, 2021

“And Mary said, “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour.” Luke 1: 46

After Jesus, we look to Mary as our model of stewardship. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God's will.

Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ.

Like Mary, we too are called to reflect Christ to the world.

We do this by living grateful and generous lives. We do this by putting other's needs before our wants.

Heart Without Ego

We all have our Ego, sometimes trying to take over our lives, sometimes quieter. It may even protect us at times. But our Ego can also grow so big it becomes too heavy to carry.

This exercise is all about where we place ourselves, in our own hearts, and before others. It is about choosing the humble place of honour, of letting ego go, of discovering the true, quiet and wonderful self that was being squashed by a big, bragging, controlling ego. This is not a weak way, or an easy way, but it does require small choices in the small habitual things. This kind of honesty is not only a sign of a good heart, of inner strength, but also a mark of real maturity.

Praying for Priests Apostolate for the Archdiocese of Regina

The idea of spiritual adoption of priests, where a woman adopts a certain priest as her spiritual "son" for whom she promises to pray, is not a new one; however, it was reserved only for nuns. In 2007, the Congregation of the Clergy, with the approval of Pope Benedict XVI, invited lay women to adopt priests as their spiritual sons, and to pray for them constantly, particularly before the Blessed Sacrament.

In this Spiritual Motherhood of Priests, we try to imitate our Blessed Mother Mary, the first Mother of Priests, in her humility and sacrifice. We adopt priests as our sons with the commitments of Eucharistic Adoration, daily prayers, and sacrifices to help our priest-sons give themselves to God more perfectly in being shepherds of their flocks, leading us all to heaven with them."

Would you like to become a Spiritual Mother and "adopt" a priest to pray for him?
