

Family Page

Thoughts of death are easier for children who understand the happiness God has reserved for each of us in heaven. Heaven is filled with people who loved God when they were on earth.

This week, each member of the family should do the following:

Think of someone you believe is in heaven — a grandparent...a friend...a favorite saint. Think about what you will say to this person when you meet in heaven.

Write a letter to the person, telling him or her what you are going to do to love God, not only this week but all of your life. If you have chosen a relative or friend, try to remember all the wonderful things that person did while on earth and plan how you can follow his or her example.

If you have chosen a saint, find out all you can about your saint. See what he or she did to love God while on earth. Write to that person, telling what it was you will try to imitate from his or her example.

At the end of the week, share the letters you have written and help one another to do the loving things you planned. By helping one another to love God now, you will be sure that one day you will all be together in heaven.

explaining GOD'S WORD

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (C) • Luke 20:27-38 • November 6, 2022

God has saved a place for you where you will always be happy. You can find the name of this place just by solving this rebus.

What's It Like in Heaven?

In today's gospel story some men ask Jesus what will happen in heaven. Jesus says something wonderful! He says in heaven all people are forever happy with God, and they will never die! Heaven is God's secret, God's most wonderful secret.

In heaven you will meet angels and wonderful holy saints and friends and loved ones who have gone before you.

No one is sad in heaven. No one gets sick in heaven. No one feels pain in heaven. No one is crippled or blind or old in God's Kingdom.

Heaven is like Christmas and Easter, your birthday and first Communion day, all rolled into one!

But here's the very best part! God the Father has saved a place ESPECIALLY FOR YOU!

Magic Square

Here is a magic square. It contains the names of some people you will meet when you go to heaven. Can you find and circle all their names?
